Hubby and Wifie decide to spend a short vacation under a tent and in order to have all the conveniences of home they bring their butler along with them. Before leaving, the butler manages to save them from the unscrupulous hands of a dealer in camping outfits who is trying to sell them a quick cooking stove that really doesn't cook at all.

Once on the beach they have a great time for the first day but that night while preparing for sleep, Hubby gets careless with his cigar and the lamp and the next thing they know all three are floundering around in the water trying to get on their beds, which have come with them.
